Our Deathless Dead!

Maryborough's reverent homage to her fallen sons at the

Unveiling ^{of the} War Memorial to the men who sacrificed their lives from the Municipality of Maryborough, 1914-18,

by

Brigadier-General R. Spencer Broome, C.B., V.D.

and its

Dedication

by

Rev. J. Elliott, L. Th.

The Memorial.

The Memorial.

Erected at the intersection of Bazaar and Sussex Streets, and centred at the termination of the former thoroughfare, the Memorial stands out imposingly at the chief entrance to the picturesque Public Gardens, which make an ideal setting. The base of the Memorial comprises a set of three circular steps, on which the monument is erected, the obelisk rising from this to a height of 26 feet. The obelisk is built entirely of rough-axed grey granite, with a rubble base, and buttresses at each angle, which are surmounted by figures representing the respective branches of the Service, viz., Soldier, Sailor, Airman, and Red Cross Nurse. All of these figures have been executed in Italian studios, and are of white Carrara Marble. From this height springs the shaft of the obelisk which is diminished gradually to the top, culminating with the symbol of sacrifice. The shaft is surmounted by a winged figure of Victory, also in white Carrara Marble, mounted on a sphere. The tablets on the Memorial are executed in Art Bronze, with the names of the fallen in raised lettering. On either side of the Memorial is a Laurel Wreath with dedication tablets bearing the following words:—

Maryborough's Grateful Tribute to

HER GALLANT SONS,
Who fell in the Great War,
1914-1918.

Honoured in Life—Mourned in Death.

The bravest thing God ever made,
Our deathless dead not once dismayed.
Theirs the greater love—
Ours the debt unpaid.

The shaft is finished in art bronze letters, "Lest we Forget" on the Bazaar Street facade, and also the Gardens side. A magnificent pair of Entrance Gates are erected at the rear of the obelisk. They are supported on massive Helidon Freestone Pillars, upon which the rising Sun is carved. The Gates are of wrought iron, and upon them are displayed in gun-metal lettering the words, "Soldiers' Memorial, 1914-1918."

"These men have fought and bled for their country, and by merit have won a memorial among their fellows."

Memorial Tablet.

Service of Dedication.

“Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help.”—Ps. cxlvi., 4.

LET US PRAY.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR FATHER which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LORD of all power and might, Who art the author and giver of all good things; Graft in our hearts the love of Thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of Thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn—“O God, our help in ages past.”

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Special Prayer.

O GOD, Who by many examples and precepts in Thy holy word hast taught us the love due to our Country, and the grateful remembrance due to those who have devoted their lives to its service, look graciously, we pray Thee, upon this Memorial of the Men who, in an hour of great need, went forth from this place to fight the battles of their Country. Grant that the record of their patriotism may inspire like zeal and constancy and self-sacrifice in the hearts of beholders for many generations.

We are mindful of those who went forth never to return, especially..... We thank Thee for their good example, we rest upon the comfortable assurance that their souls are in the keeping of a faithful Creator, a most merciful Redeemer, a righteous Judge. Into Thy hands, O Lord, we commend their spirits. In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth, in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment, Good Lord, deliver us.

We are mindful also of those who where spared to return, beseeching Thee that they may show forth their thankfulness by walking more earnestly in the way of Thy commandments, and by continuing Thy faithful soldiers and servants to their lives' end.

And for ourselves and for all the peoples of this Empire we pray that we may be enabled to turn the victory granted to our cause to the best account, by using it for the furtherance of Thy kingdom and the benefit of mankind. May peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, increase and abound among us more and more. As citizens of an earthly country, may we never forget our citizenship of a better country—of the City which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.

All this we ask in the name and through the merits of Him who first shed tears over Jerusalem, and afterwards His blood, the Captain of our salvation, Jesus Christ. Amen.

"Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought."

Hymns.

"Nearer, my God, to thee."

Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
Even though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song would be,
'Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!'

Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven,
All that Thou send'st to me
In mercy given,

Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise,—
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
'Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!'

"Lead, kindly Light."

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on;
The night is dark, and I am far from home;
Lead Thou me on.
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene,—one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that
Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path, but now

Lead Thou me on;
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

"Lest We Forget."

God of our fathers, known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle line—
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
The captains and the kings depart—
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.

Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—

Such boastings as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the Law—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—Lest we forget!

Amen.
